

Listen to the story and fill in the blanks with the correct word.

Long ago, there was a _____ teacher. He had many students.

One student was not a _____ person. Sometimes he would _____ things from the school and sell them in the _____. The other students didn't like that. They told the teacher. They wanted the bad student to _____ the school.

The teacher _____ nothing and said nothing.

The following week, the bad student took _____ things. Some of the other students saw that. They were angry. They wrote a long _____ to the teacher. They wanted him to _____ the bad student to leave.

The teacher called all of the students together for a _____. The teacher said, "My students, you are all very smart. You know the _____ between right and wrong. For that _____, I want you to leave and study in another school.

This bad student doesn't _____ what is right and what is wrong. If I don't teach him, how will he _____ what is right? This boy will stay here to learn."

The bad student _____ the teacher's kind words. For the first time in his life he thought _____ cared about him. He started to cry. On that day, he learned how to be a _____ person.